APPROVAL OF MINUTES

OPEN BUSINESS

- Donut Mornings-good for volunteers now but we will try signup genius next time. Instead of the HASA info table we will try idea boxes on the tables at donut mornings. Maybe we can add “volunteer talents” to the idea box at donuts. We will discuss at a future meeting how and if we want to try this.
- Conference Meals/Signup Genius for Conferences-There was a signup genius hiccup but it was resolved. Teachers couldn't print individual schedules, we could have tabs for each teacher but it would be harder to see siblings conference times, also teachers could customize available times. Maybe have a link for each day in the email.
- Volunteer Information-Toni met with Fr Tony about the fish fries, he agreed the fish fries don't fall under HASA but we are close to families so we could be helpful. We need to have a representative at each school board meeting and give them idea on possible volunteers. We also could verbally tank volunteers at events which will point out the need for volunteers. Also, on signup genius we discussed listing volunteer opportunities and descriptions. We discussed if volunteer hours should be mandatory again? We decided we shouldn't force people to volunteer. There have been communication problems.

NEW BUSINESS

- Give to the Max Day-we need volunteers Nov 17th to hand out flyers at the pick-up line. Kids and staff can wear green shirts that day. All money goes to the sound system.
- HASA doesn't need to donate to the choir bus.
- Catholic Schools Week-HASA doesn't have to do anything. Open house, we could do something to promote HASA.
- Replacing Coffee Mornings-Afterschool events or monthly donut days, Gina Walker said she would organize this.
