

MAP assessments were administered to the Kindergarten -8th grade students in Spring 2013. There are approximately 4,000 school districts representing about 4 million students using MAP assessments. St. Francis students participate in the MAP assessments three times a year. The information provided insight into school-wide, grade-level and individual student achievement, progress and growth.

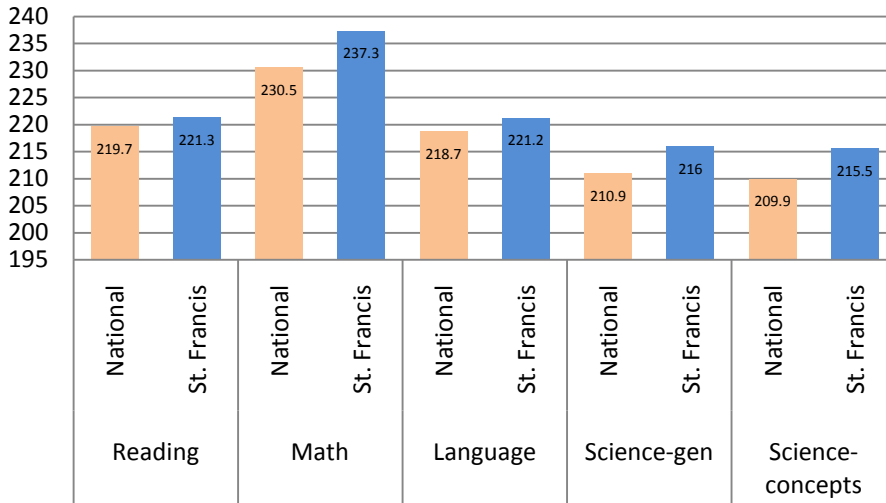

5

6

7

8

