APPROVE MINUTES

SPECIAL GUEST, AMY KALTHOFF

- Catholic United Financial-Amy presented to us an opportunity for the school to take part in a charity event in conjunction with Catholic United Financial. HASA will be part of communicating and promoting this outdoor event which will be held Sept 17th. HASA agreed that this sounded like a great event.
- Prairie Fire Children's Theater-Amy presented us with information and the opportunity to put on a Prairie Fire Productions Play this year. It was decided there probably wouldn't be dates that work this year since it takes a week for prep and performance, but next year in September might be a good time for it.

OPEN BUSINESS

- Talent Show- May 5th at 6:00pm. 8th graders will hand out the flyers Friday March 10th.
- HASA Board Members- next year we will need a Vice president. Tonya offered to take the role of Student Life. Becky will be donuts coordinator or communications.
- Penny Competition, started, around $20 so far, about even. The money is going to bridges of hope this year.

NEW BUSINESS

- Food Drive-March 20th, Joanne Rutger is heading this.
- Birth Right Fundraiser-May 8th, Suzanne Lokken is heading this.
- Year End Picnic May 24th, Planning for the same as the last few years.
